CASH BASIS RESUMING. SLAYS SLAYER OF SIRE.

Chicago Financiers Seek Ideas of Others.

MANY LETTERS SENT OUT

At a Meeting of Clearing House Association Members It Was Decided to Ask Expressions From Pittsburg to the Pacific Coast.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—A step looking toward the resumption of business on a cash basis has been taken by the Chicago Clearing House association. Letters have been mailed to bankers in the middle and western sections of the country asking them to express an opinion on the general situation. These statements will be tabulated and used by Chicago financiers as the index of feeling outside of New York.

There was a general expression favoring this move at the meeting of the association. James B. Forgan, president of the First National bank, president of the First National bank, be advisable to hold a meeting when bankers from the country as well as business men both of Chicago and from states adjacent to it could be present to discuss the question. Others expressed the opinion the time was not ripe for such a meeting, as at present it would be impossible to undertake to pay all checks in currency. It was agreed finally that the sentiment of the country in the middle and far west be sounded and a letter prepared, copies of which were forwarded. A letter was sent every banker west of Pittsburg to the Pacific coast. Answers to the letters sent to the farthest points cannot be received for several days.

Vigorous Denial of Any Other Policy Has Been Made.

New Orleans, Nov. 23.—A vigorous denial of any policy other than the one of absolutely taking cotton off the market until the minimum price of 15 cents a pound is secured was made by the heads of the Farmers' Union of practically every cotton growing state gathered in special conference here to arrange plans for continuing the holding movement. The conference was presided over by President C. S. Barrett of the National Farmers' Union. It will be followed by meetings in every one of the cotton growing states urging the putting in force by the growers of the recommendations made.

Youth Takes the Life of Party Killing Father.

MEETING WAS BY CHANCE

Will Trammell and Lee Oxford Have an Encounter in a Hot Springs Saloon, as a Result of Which Former Loses His Life.

Hot Springs, Nov. 23.—As a sequel to the killing of Lee Oxford on the Malvern road in June, 1905, Will Trammell, the author of the crime, was Friday shot to death by Walter Oxford, the nineteen-year-old son of the man he killed.

A chance meeting in the saloon of Rogers Bros. on Malvern avenue, shortly after 2 o'clock, resulted in the second tragedy. Young Oxford entered the place on business, and there met Trammell almost at the entrance. Four shots rang out in rapid succession soon afterward. Trammell was found lying on the floor gasping his last breath when pedestrians, attracted by the shots, entered the place. By a peculiar chance the saloon was empty at the time, the bartender being out on the sidewalk and the porter in a rear room, and there were no eyewitnesses to what transpired when the two men unexpectedly faced each other.

Trammell was released from prison ten days ago on a bond of $10,000 after serving 506 days in jail for the murder of the boy's father.

TO ASK CASH.

Portion of Money of Oklahoma Will Be Called For.

Guthrie, Nov. 23.—Application to George B. Cortsiyou, secretary of the treasury, will be made in the near future for as much of the $5,000,000 school fund given to the new state by the government as is needed in Oklahoma to relieve the financial stringency. The step was decided on at a conference of Governor Haskell and Assistant Secretary of State Meyers, Auditor Trapp, Superintendent of Instruction Cameron and Chairman Connors of the board of agriculture.

The money is in the United States treasury, and is at the disposition of the school and board to be used for educational purposes. It is proposed to bring this vast amount of cash to Oklahoma, or at least as great a part of it as is needed, to comply with the requirements of the banks for temporary deposit.

Three other members arrived at night. Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul, Louisville, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Atlantic City, Denver and Long Branch, N. J., are applicants for the honor of entertaining the next national convention. Louisville and Chicago are expected to be represented before the committee members. Other cities are expected to be represented at the Washington meeting. National Chairman Taggart will be a candidate for re-election as the Indiana member of the national committee. Committeemen were tendered a banquet at night by Mr. Taggart.

TEXAS COTTON CROP.

Commissioner Milner Says Figures Are Official.

Austin, Nov. 23.—Commissioner of Agriculture Milner gave out his estimate of cotton crop of Texas for 1907 which he places at 1,987,887 bales. This is based on the fact that 86 per cent of the present cotton crop in Texas has been ginned. He compares the percentage of cotton crops which have been ginned up to Nov. 14 for the past four years in order to reach the conclusion of his present estimate. These percentages and figures, Commissioner Milner says, are official, as they are figures given of ginners' reports by the Federal government.

An important conference of officers of the Texas National guard was held here in the adjutant general's department for the purpose of taking definite steps toward reducing the Texas National guard from a division to a brigade. The question of a successor to Major General William H. Stacy, as commander of the guard was also discussed. Plans for the next encampment were also debated. The following officers attended: Generals Newton, Stacy, Hulen and Scurry; Colonels Hutchings, Townsend, Lyon, Brynes and Delamater.

A statement was given out by the department of agriculture showing the total number of bales of cotton ginned of this season's crop up to Nov. 1, which is 1,137,010 square and 52,550 round bales.

State Bank Superintendent Love has announced the appointment of Thomas Shearon of Dallas to be special agent of and take charge of the Johnson City State bank, which suspended several days ago.

BRINGS BULLARD.

Crime Alleged Done Over Thirteen Years Ago.

Goodwater, Ala., Nov. 23.—Deputy Sheriff Trigg of Dallas, Tex., left here having in custody J. W. Bullard, a merchant well thought of, who is charged with killing a man named Hammons in Dallas county nearly fourteen years ago. Bullard claims the deed was done in self defense.

After the killing Bullard left Texas and went to Central America, where he remained several years. He came to Alabama and took up farming some distance out from Goodwater, and not only did well but made many friends. Then he started into the mercantile business and prosperity continued with him. The dissolution of partnership followed and his arrest on a telegram from Texas was another incident. He apprehends no trouble in proving his claim of self defense.

C. F. PERSONS PASSES AWAY.

Well Known Newspaper Man Dies at Stamford, Conn.

New York, Nov. 23.—Charles F. Persons, until recently vice president and assistant general manager of the American Press Association, New York city, died at Stamford, Conn. Mr. Persons was born in Rushford, N. Y., fifty-three years ago and educated at the nearby schools and learned the printer's trade on the Cattaraugus Republican at Little Valley, N. Y. Later he started the Bradford (Pa.) Era at the time the Bradford oil fields were opened. From Bradford he moved to Olean, N. Y., where for many years he was editor and proprietor of the Olean Daily Herald.

About twenty years ago he became manager of the American Press Association's New York office, was promoted to secretary and assistant general manager and still later became vice president and assistant general manager. He was taken ill a year ago and went to California to recuperate, but the change did not prove beneficial. Three weeks ago Mrs. Persons died. Mr. Persons is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Frederick E. Gwinn, Jr., and Miss Marjorie Persons.

WAGE REDUCTION.

Sixty Thousand Skilled Mechanics Are Affected by the Notice.

New York, Nov. 23.—A conference of importance to 60,000 skilled mechanics in the building trades of this city has just been held, at which the Master Carpenters' association gave notice to the Brotherhood of Carpenters that after Jan. 1 wages will be reduced from $5.00 to $4.50 a day. Because of tightness in the money market construction of buildings has decreased 50 per cent, and this the master carpenters gave as the reason for this action.

The Bank of France is receiving a premium of three-fifths of 1 per cent for gold.

IS MARS INHABITED?

RIDDLE ASTRONOMER WILL TRY TO SOLVE.

Prof. Todd, of Amherst, Sails for South America Where Planet Will Be Studied from High Peaks of Andes.

New York.—The riddle of the planet Mars may be brought nearer solution by the Lowell expedition, headed by Prof. Todd, of Amherst college, now enroute to South America, where, high in the peaks of the Andes, photographs of the mysterious planet will be taken through a mammoth telescope by a specially constructed camera. When these photographs are developed the question that puzzled Sir William Herschel and later caused Prof. Percival Lowell, of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, to spend a fortune in astronomical observations in the high altitude of Flagstaff, Ariz., may be an open book to science.

"Is Mars inhabited and are those strange markings which radiate in seeming design from the polar caps where the supposed Martian seas exist artificial or natural?"

Those two questions are the astronomical problems which the little expedition led by Prof. David Todd, sailing recently for South America on the steamer Panama, hopes to answer at least in part. Prof. Todd is accompanied by his wife, who is also an astronomer, and with them is a photographer, a mechanic and an Amherst student.

Prof. Todd would not say that he expected to see a race of Martians building skyscrapers, digging subways and otherwise employing themselves like their earthly neighbors. In fact, he would not commit himself as to his belief whether there is a race of people on the planet, which will be only 36,000,000 miles away in June.

"We are going to South America in the hope of getting the facts," said Todd before his departure, "and to obtain information on the question of the Martian canals. We have taken with us the 18-inch telescope of Amherst observatory and a camera especially designed for photographing the planet. This will be the largest telescope ever used in South America and after we have selected some high point in the Andes where the atmosphere is clear and steady we will mount our telescope and begin operations."

Prof. Todd spent three uncomfortable days in New York just before sailing trying to find his missing telescope, which was on board a vagrant freight car in the railroad yards and declined to be found until the last minute. The professor said he hoped to have less difficulty in finding the Martian canals. Speaking of the plans of the expedition, Prof. Todd said:

"From Panama we will proceed to Lima, Peru, and from there ascend 13,000 feet in the Andes, where the atmosphere is noted for its clearness and steadiness. The high-power lenses which we will use magnify the air and its vibrations the same number of times as the object upon which the telescope is focussed, and in the Andes we will have little vibration to interfere with the observations."

"We will first test the air with a small telescope, and after deciding on the best spot for our work we will mount the large telescope. If necessary we will take these observations in the high deserts of northern Chili. Later on we will observe the annular eclipse of the sun, which takes place July 10."

Mars will be close to the earth in June, after which the planet will not approach again until 1909, when she will draw still nearer to the earth, being 35,000,000 miles away. Then for 15 years the planet will swing too distant for definite observation and not until 1924 will astronomers again be able to study the wonderful series of "canals" which puzzle the scientific world.

HARLAN MAKES A HOME RUN.

Justice, Aged 74, Is Star Baseball Player at Shad Bake.

Washington.—Justice Harlan of the United States supreme court, aged 74, made a home run and won the game in a baseball contest at the annual shad bake given by the Washington Bar association at Marshall Hall, Md., the other day.

When Justice Harlan went to the bat the score was a tie. He smashed the sphere a wicked swat to deep center. He started around the bases and his leg work was really marvelous.

The ball went over the head of the center fielder and was lost in the tall grass. Before it was recovered Justice Harlan had reached the home plate, where he stood sipping a mint julep which had been hurriedly prepared for lining out a four-base hit.

Talk in Night Divorce Plea.

St. Stephens, Wyo.—Eleazar Whitaker, who has been employed on several big irrigation projects in Wyoming, has filed a suit for divorce from his wife, Ellen M. Whitaker, alleging that she was accustomed to talk so much after they had retired for the night and cause him to lose so much sleep that his health became seriously impaired. He says that she did not talk pleasantly after they had gone to bed at night, but in a querulous, fault-finding way, demanding that he buy things for her which it was impossible for him to buy.

BED SHEETS MUST BE LONG.

Texas Law Applying to Hotels and Sleepers Effective July 12.

Austin, Tex.—The nine-foot bed sheet bill which was passed at the regular session of the legislature has been approved by Gov. Campbell and will become effective July 12. On that date all top sheets on beds in hotels and lodging houses and on all sleeping berths in this state must be nine feet long.

The point has been raised that there is no requirement in the bill as to the width of the sheet and that it is possible that those who are not disposed to live up to the spirit of the law may make the sheets nine feet long and only nine inches wide.

Senator George B. Griggs, of Houston, is the author of this new law. He says that there is nothing freakish about the measure; that it should not be made the butt of jokes.

This state has made much advancement in sanitary matters during the last few years. All sleeping cars are required to be fumigated at the end of each trip and at all terminal points in the state. This applies also to blankets and other bedding of the cars.

All public buildings, such as school houses, court houses, jails, railroad depots, etc., must be disinfected under direction of the state health department at stated intervals. All railroad passenger coaches must also be disinfected and kept clean and provided with cuspidors, one for every other seat. Each cuspidor must contain a liquid disinfectant.

FINDS HOME WAS STOLEN.

Editor Discovers Buildings Are Gone and Has to Camp Out.

Millings, Mont.—E. H. Becker, a well known newspaper man and formerly proprietor of the Daily Gazette of this city, literally has been robbed of house and home.

When Mr. Becker several weeks ago disposed of his interest in the newspaper business he purchased the Indian improvements upon a claim in the Crow reservation and intended to homestead.

Since then he has been closing up his business affairs preparatory to moving upon his claim. He loaded his household goods on a truck and, taking along a quantity of provisions, started for his claim.

When he reached it he found that every building on it, including a substantial log cabin, a stable and a woodshed, had disappeared. Every stick of wood composing the building had been taken and the newspaper man found himself without shelter for the night.

He managed to camp out in his wagon, however, and next morning returned to town for a load of lumber with which to construct a shack. Incidentally, he posted an offer of a reward of $25 for the miscreant who stole his happy home.

A BILLION FOR EQUIPMENT.

Railroads Striving to Meet Demands Made Upon Them.

Chicago.—American railways will spend close to a billion dollars in the present year in an extraordinary effort to secure equipment, power and track, including new road, to make it possible to handle the great amount of traffic being offered to them.

If the car and locomotive builders and the steel railmakers do their part the year will be a record one in the three industries mentioned.

It is estimated that if the manufacturers are equal to the test, between 340,000 and 350,000 freight cars will be added to the total equipment of the railways of the United States, fully 5,000 passenger cars will be built, and more than 6,000 locomotives will be added to the steam power which is now available.

It is estimated that the railroads will pay full $92,000,000 for steel rails in the present year. If this proves true the steel mills will have turned out about 3,300,000 tons of that product. The output last year was about 3 1/4 million tons. It is said the western roads will use fully 1,600,000 tons of rails and that nearly 1,000,000 tons of this will be rolled in the eastern mills.

HEALER LOOKS LIKE CHRIST.

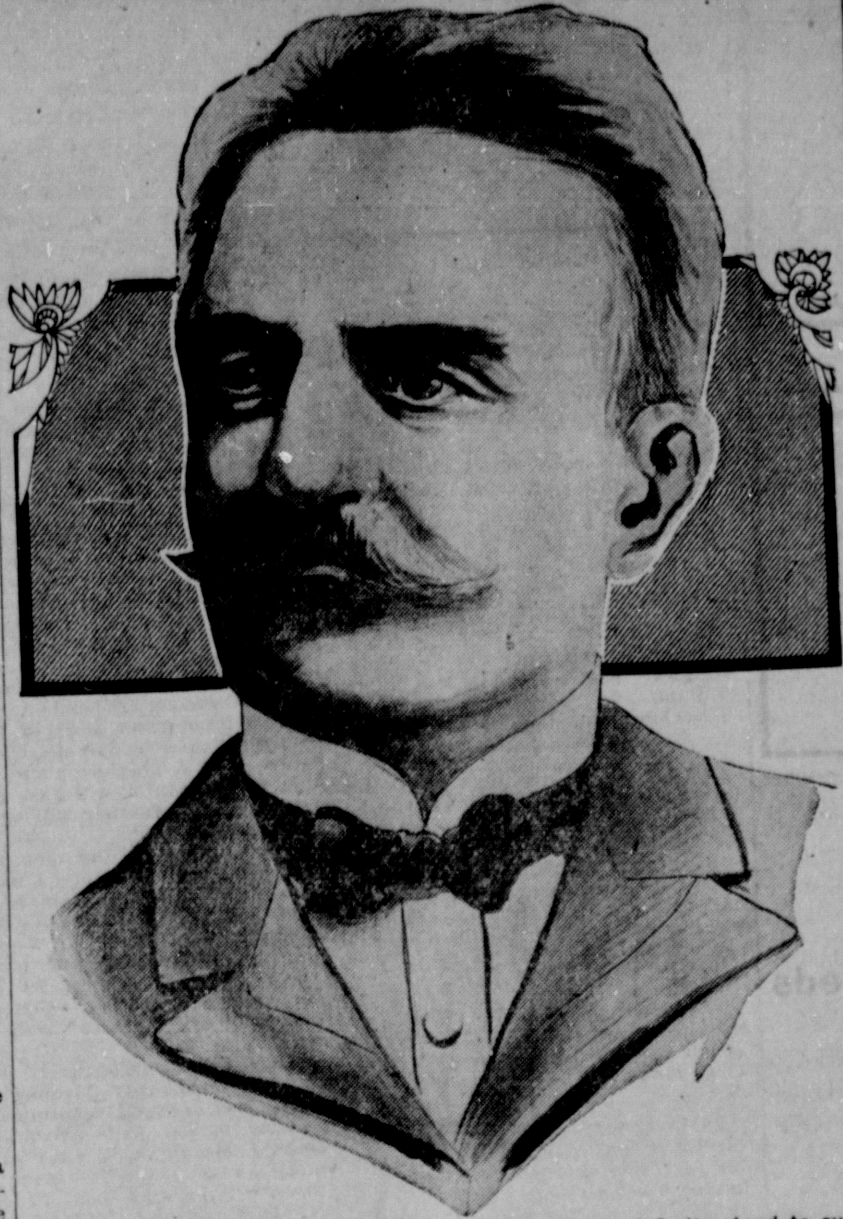

American Millionaire Said to Be Patient of Mysterious Carpenter.

Erfurt, Germany.—Among the recent patients of Ausmeier, a carpenter of this town who claims to have miraculous healing powers, is an American millionaire, according to a local newspaper, who has brought his family with him to be cured of a hereditary ailment. The paper does not give the American's name and Ausmeier is dumb on the subject.

Ausmeier is a remarkable looking man, with a face and head strikingly resembling those which Christian art generally subscribes to Jesus Christ. These are resemblances he has cultivated to such an extent that people who see him for the first time are said to be struck with awe at the majesty of his appearance.

He uses simple and harmless ingredients in his healing, maintaining that it is not the medicine that cures but the words he utters and the prayers he offers. The remarkable thing about it is that many cures have been wrought and people from far and near are streaming to him for assistance. He has now taken to wearing an oriental looking robe which he has embroidered with curious cabalistic signs.

New President of Switzerland.

Dr. Edward Miller was recently elected president of Switzerland to succeed President Forrer. An election is held every year, as that is the length of a term, and the salary is but $2,500 annually.

RICH HAVE WIRY HAIR.

WALL STREET BARBER SAYS HE CAN TELL WEALTH BY BEARD.

Average Workingman Has Soft Whiskers According to Man Who Scrapes Millionaires—Latter Are Early Risers.

New York.—Joseph Bischoff, barber and hair cutter, in Wall street, who attends to the tonsorial wants of many of its most famous men, says that he can tell a multimillionaire by the hair on his face—that men of vast wealth have wiry and stiff whiskers and are hard to shave. The average workingman has a soft, fuzzy growth of hair on the face and can be scraped without special effort.

Thomas F. Ryan is Bischoff's most famous patron, and the barber goes to the financier's house every morning at 8:30 o'clock sharp. He also shaves members of the Stillman, Woodward, Rockefeller and Vanderbilt families, and says that in all his experience he has yet to meet the millionaire who wakes up in the morning with a grouch. Bischoff does most of his work at the homes of his rich patrons, and at his basement drop in for a shave, hair cut, or shampoo.

Bischoff can write a check for $200,000, and his signature will be honored in the great banking institutions with a celerity that will surprise his acquaintances.

The other day at the shop, while lathering the face of a ten dollar a week clerk, Bischoff gave his daily itinerary as follows:

"I get up every morning, including Sunday, at six o'clock. After shaving myself, dressing, and partaking of a

VALUE OF A RIGHT LEG.

Held by Surgeon Decrease Boy's Value Only 15 Per Cent.

Jersey City, N. J.—At just how much do you value a right leg, on which you have a foot, and mayhap toes with corns that smart and burn and tickle when damp weather comes?

When you are a half block from a speeding, tantalizing trolley car and making excellent time in its direction you think that the leg is invaluable, but the crudity of your estimate is impressed with severity on you when you realize that to be without that leg is only to detract 15 per cent, from your ability to get along in the world, according to a statement made by an expert on such matters, Dr. William J. Arlitz, a surgeon in St. Francis hospital. The physician testified to this in a suit for damages tried in the circuit court brought for a six-year-old boy.

The surgeon claimed that boys of tender years, when presented with a cork or wooden leg in exchange for one of the foot-bearing kind, with the accompanying corns and bunions, were able to become so proficient in its use that its presence was unknown to the ordinary observer, and that it could be detected only by careful examination.

"Why, boys can play baseball, ride a bicycle, run up and down stairs, and I have even seen one lad walk a slack wire after he had become accustomed to the use of the leg," said the surgeon.

SCIENTISTS VICTIMS OF A HOAX.

Discovery of Antiquities on Island Is Found to Be a Fake.

Paris.—That the practice of "salt-fing" claims is becoming quite Europeanized is fully shown by a hoaxing of the grave Academie des Inscriptions et Belles Lettres. Last August Dr. Capitan read a learned paper on the discovery of Egyptian antiquities on a small island off Marseilles. Discussion promptly followed, in which new theories of the history of civilization were constructed on the discovery which seemed on the way to becoming epoch-making until the other day, when Dr. Capitan read a second paper, apologetic and explanatory. An old man living in the island on whose property the antiquities were found fell very ill and confessed he had bought the objects from a Marseilles curio dealer and had strewn them on his property in hope it would be purchased for excavations.

mild breakfast, I hustle over to the residence of James T. Woodward, in East Fifty-sixth street, and reach there at 6:15. I find Mr. Woodward, who is the president of the Hanover National bank, fully dressed, waiting for his morning shave. He greets me kindly and is vigorous and bright eyed every morning.

"James Stillman, president of the National City bank, comes next, and I am booked to be in his dressing-room not later than 7:15. He lives in East Seventy-second street. I also take care of his son, James Stillman. While I am shaving the senior Mr. Stillman I often think of his cares, the enormous figures on his mind, and of his great responsibility. Then I look for lines on his face—lines of worry—and I am happy to say that I can't find them."

"Then comes Mr. Ryan. I reach his home on Fifth avenue at 8:30 o'clock, and let me say right now that I get there on the tick of the hour."

Generally I find him out of bed waiting for me. Sometimes he is in his pajamas. He slips on a dressing robe and says:

"All right, Joseph; do the job as quickly as possible."

"Everyone knows that Mr. Ryan is one of the greatest business men in the world, but I can say, after shaving him for almost 20 years, that he comes out of his sleep with a smile and a laugh, and is kindly, generous, and light hearted from the moment of his awakening."

"I rub the lather for five minutes, because Mr. Ryan has the strongest and stiffest hair of all the men I have ever shaved. The hairs are like as many wire nails. His eyes twinkle from the start of the shave to the finish, and I often wonder if he forms big corporations in his brain while I am shaving him."

"Just think, during the time I lather Mr. Ryan's face his investments will have made him $100. The scraping process takes up time enough for another hundred, and the bay rum and hair combing completing the shave increases Mr. Ryan's fortune about $300. He is liberal. I never have named a charity or a needy person to him that he has not asked how much it will take to mend the situation. If I say $2 or $100 it is all the same. Mr. Ryan has his hand in his pocket and gives me the sum I name."

"I next call on Mr. Ryan's sons in Liberty street. They are Allan, Cleddennin and John—all chips of the old block. Then I go to Wall street and start the day's work in the shop. Among my callers are Vice President Vanderlip of the National City bank and Alexander Orr. I cut the hair of a lot of millionaire babies. William G. Rockefeller's boys are among them."

Dolly Bloom a Great Cow.

New York.—The world's record of milk production for a year by a single cow has been broken by the Guernsey Dolly Bloom, according to the report of Secretary William H. Caldwell, which was submitted at the annual meeting of the Guernsey Cattle club here. Dolly Bloom's record for the year was 17,297 pounds, or about 2,023 gallons. She is owned by F. A. Ames, of Boston.

FIRE AS A SOCIETY EVENT.

How a Female Reporter Described the Blaze for Her Paper.

Kansas City.—The regular reporter was taking a vacation, according to the Neodesha Sun, and the editor was busy in the office, so when it was learned that on the previous evening there had been a fire in a remote part of the city the young lady who writes the society column was sent to bring in a report of it for the paper. She came into the office an hour later with the following very interesting account:

"Quite a number of people in this part of the city attended a fire last night at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Blank, in Thirteenth street. Some went in carriages and buggies, but a majority walked. The alarm was sounded about 9:30 and many who attended the fire had just returned from church, consequently they were already dressed for the occasion."

out of the city on business; hence the affair will be quite a surprise to him when he returns. Mrs. Blank wore a light percale kimono and had her hair done up in kid curls.

"The firemen responded readily and worked heroically to subdue the seething flames. Most of them were young and fairly good looking. They were dressed in oilcloth coats cut short with trousers to match. Their hat rims were narrow in front and broad behind and sagged down in the rear. The chief's hat was ornamented with an octagonal brass spike which stuck up above his head like a horn, giving him the appearance of a unicorn."

"When the flames broke out through the second story and cast a lurid hue over the surrounding buildings the view was one never to be forgotten. At a late hour the sightseers went home and all felt that they had passed an evening full of interest and excitement."

DUSTER IS DOOMED.

DANGER IN OLD-TIME BUNCH OF FEATHERS.

Tuberculosis and Many Minor Ills Lurk in Its Wake—Only Proper Way to Sweep a Carpeted Room.

The committee on the prevention of tuberculosis is trying to rid every house of the old feather duster. The recruits in the warfare against consumption have taken up arms against it. A good deal is heard about street dust and soft coal as a nuisance and as dangerous to the public health, but we are apt to forget that right in our own homes we often have a danger that is perhaps just as great as either of these. The old-fashioned way of cleaning a room with a feather duster is a real menace to health. The men who have organized anti-tuberculosis movements have come out with the following public announcement about sweeping and dusting:

"When you sweep a room raise as little dust as possible, because this dust when breathed irritates the nose and throat and may set up catarrh. Some of the dust breathed in the dusty air reaches the lungs, making parts of them black and hard and useless."

"To prevent making a dust in sweeping, use moist sawdust on bare floors. When the room is carpeted, moisten a newspaper and tear it into small scraps and scatter upon the carpet where you begin sweeping. As you sweep brush the papers along by the broom, and they will catch most of the dust and hold it fast, just as the sawdust does on bare floors. Do not have either the paper or the sawdust dripping wet, only moist."

"In dusting a room do not use a feather duster, because this does not remove the dust from the room, but only brushes it into the air so that you breathe it in; or it settles down, and then you have to do the work over again."

"Use soft, dry cloths to dust with and shake them frequently out of the window, or use slightly moistened cloths and rinse them out in water when you have finished. In this way you get the dust out of the room."

"In cleaning rooms you should remember that dust settles upon the floors as well as on the furniture, and is stirred into the air we breathe by walking across the floors. You can easily remove all this dust in rooms which have bare floors, in houses, stores, shops, schoolrooms, etc., after the dust has settled, by passing over the floor a mop which has been wrung out so as to be only moist, not dripping wet."

POINTS ON IRONING LACE.

Well to Remember If You Desire the Best Results.

One of the points to remember when ironing lace is to iron it well to the width, so that the whole design of the lace will show clear and distinct and look as near like the new material as possible.

To do this the lace must be carefully pulled to the width and then placed on the table wrong side up and ironed along the straight edge, holding the lace up in front of the iron so that the toe of the iron may press the lace to the width and also keep the selvage straight.

Again place the lace flat on the table and iron across the width, pressing the toe of the iron into each point until it is quite dry. If the lace has a raised pattern, a thick piece of felt or three folds of ordinary blanket may be slipped under the ironing sheet and the lace ironed over it. This will raise the work considerably.

Very fine lace should be ironed through muslin and never touched with the bare metal.

Cold Saw.

Select a fresh hard head of cabbage, pick off the outside leaves, cut in half with a sharp knife, shave into fine pieces, a board comes for this purpose, put the shreds into a dish and pour over the following dressing:

Take the whole of two raw eggs, beat slightly, add half a tumblerful of cream, stir well then add two tablespoonfuls of good vinegar (unless very strong) stir until it thickens.

Put on the fire in an enameled saucepan until it comes to a boil, remove from the fire, pour over the cabbage while hot, mix thoroughly and put away to cool. Just before serving season with salt and pepper.

Frothed Chocolate.

To make frothed chocolate for ten or a dozen guests, beat two quarts milk in a double boiler so that there will be no danger of its scorching. Cook in a saucepan four squares chocolate with four tablespoonfuls sugar, four tablespoonfuls hot water or milk, and a saltspoonful salt. When smooth and shiny add the hot milk gradually, stirring all the time. Then whip lightly with an egg beater and flavor with cinnamon or a teaspoonful vanilla, or a little of each. Have ready a pint of whipped cream, put a tablespoonful in the bottom of each cup, pour the hot chocolate over it and serve very hot.

Peas in Turnip Cups.

Select even sized white Dutch turnips. Peel them and scoop out the center, so that only a shell remains. Put these in a steamer and cook until tender, but not soft enough to lose their shape. Put a turnip cup on a small plate, fill the center with French peas which have been heated in a rich white sauce, and surround the base of the turnip with sprigs of parsley.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys surely point to weak kidney nerves. The kidneys, like the heart, and the stomach, and their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative. It is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had. For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend.

Rheumatism

I have found a tried and tested cure for Rheumatism! Not a remedy that will straighten the distorted limbs of chronic cripples, nor turn bony growths back to flesh again. That is impossible. But I can now surely kill the pains and pangs of this deplorable disease.

In Germany—with a Chemist in the City of Darmstadt—I found the last ingredient with which Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy was made a perfected, dependable prescription. Without that last ingredient, I successfully treated many, many cases of Rheumatism; but now, at last, it uniformly cures all curable cases of this heretofore much dreaded disease. Those sand-like granular wastes, found in Rheumatic Blood, seem to dissolve and pass away under the action of this remedy as freely as does sugar when added to pure water. And then, when dissolved, these poisonous wastes freely pass from the system, and the cause of Rheumatism is gone forever. There is now no real need—no actual excuse to suffer longer without help. We sell, and in confidence recommend.

Try This For Catarrh.

Free tests are now being supplied by mail to all Catarrh sufferers. There is no expense—no obligation whatever. Dr. Shoop is combining Oil of Eucalyptus, Thymol, Menthol, Oil of Wintergreen, etc., and is incorporating these ingredients into a pure, snow-white cream-like imported Petroleum. This Cream—Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy—gives immediate and lasting relief to catarrh of the nose and throat. That all may first test it free, these trial boxes are being mailed without charge, simply to encourage these tests and thus fully demonstrate, beyond doubt, the value of this combination.

If Catarrh has extended down to the stomach or bowels, then Dr. Shoop's Restorative must also be used internally if a complete cure is to be expected. Otherwise the Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy will alone be entirely sufficient. Write Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. for sample and book. Sold by Druggists everywhere.

Hog and hominy help to hold for higher prices.

A Chicago laborer named Jeans has inherited a million. He isn't blue Jeans any more.

The only note of discord in the Thanksgiving song is the shortage of the turkey crop.

Isn't it about time to revive that old chestnut about the juxtaposition of red-headed girls and gray horses?

After retiring from the presidency, Roosevelt could probably get a position on the editorial staff of the "Brickbats and Bouquets" Magazine.

Why not stop the everlasting Bailey controversy? Everybody who has a mind has made it up on the question.

The Russians are introducing football into that country as a kind of inoculation against the bomb-throwing epidemic.

Humming birds sit on their eggs only ten days. The period of incubation for politicians is usually somewhat longer.

An investigation of graft in one of the European countries made public the fact that a real live long-eared donkey was on the public service payroll.

There are politicians who seem to have taken for their motto: Kill as many sheep as you can, but don't get caught with the wool in your teeth.

The French duke protested to papa Shonts that it was the girl—not the money—that he wanted. Then Millionaire Dad wanted it in writing before giving his consent.

Rev. Dr. Bellows, of New York, once expressed the opinion that Washington city had all the rest of the world beat several lengths in the amount of "infernal intellect" aggregated there.

Don't imagine that an automobile is cheaper than a horse because the latter has to be fed. Gasoline may be cheaper than oats but new tires other repairs cost hundreds of times more than shoeing.

It must have been tobacco dealers who hired Carrie Nation to say she wouldn't kiss any man who chews the weed. Anyhow, it is a mean way of booming their business.

An English woman writer has arrived in this country hunting for a man to play the part of hero in her next novel. If she comes to Texas she will find so many heroes that the only difficulty will be in making the selection.

There is little resemblance physically, but in its political features Oklahoma is the New Zealand of America, and the practical workings of its government will be watched with interest and we hope with profit by all the states.

The South and West are humbly thankful (?) to the administration for the crumbs that fell from the bountiful table at which the East was feasted at the expense of all the people.

If Secretary Taft should happen to arrive in the midst of a London fog the atmospheric displacement would cause so much condensation and precipitation that a deluge would be the probable result.

A cowboy preacher in Indiana had some members of his congregation arrested for chewing gum during the service, on the ground that it was a disturbance of the worship. We have heard that one cannot chew gum and think at the same time and maybe the accused were not conscious of the offense they were committing.

If the people of Governor Campbell's home town believed what some of the newspapers and politicians say about him being the cause of the hard times they would probably burn him in effigy. "The panic" has hit Palestine about as hard as any town in the State, on account of the discharge of the most of the employees in the railroad shops there.

Railroad shops and big manufacturing plants are good things to have while prosperity reigns, but when hard times come and thousands of honest and industrious men are laid off and unable to get work elsewhere, while their helpless wives and children are suffering for the necessities of life, the town that is without these things doesn't feel so bad. The fact that Bryan has more schools than factories is worthy of mention in Thanksgiving sermons and prayers this year.

FOSTER'S WEATHER BULLETIN.

Copyright 1907 by W. T. Foster.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 23.—Last bulletin gave forecasts of disturbance to cross continent 24 to 28, warm wave 23 to 27, cool wave 26 to 30. Next disturbance will reach Pacific coast about 30, cross west of Rockies country by close of Dec. 1, great central valleys 2 to 4, eastern states 6. Warm wave will cross west of Rockies about 30, great central valleys Dec. 2, eastern states 4. Cool wave will cross west of Rockies about Dec. 3, great central valleys 5, eastern states 7.

For December the great planet Jupiter will be at his greatest disturbing point, late in the month Mercury, the magnetic disturber, will enter its contact with the earth. Venus will still be in magnetic touch with the earth's magnetic equator and late in the month Mars will come into the electric circle that touches our atmosphere. All the planets except Saturn will add their disturbing forces to the elements that upset our atmosphere and we may expect anything rather than a soothing, smoky, Indian summer December.

The first disturbance of December described above, will lift the temperature to a higher plane, the first touches of winter will pass away and although the weather will be rough it will not be cold.

Up to Dec. 16, the month will be very dry and therefore I expect the above described storm to be comparatively dry. A severe cold wave will precede it but the cool wave following it will be mild and not a cold wave. Following Dec. 10 look out for very bad weather. General forecast of Dec. will be given in next bulletin.

About and immediately following Nov. 23, cold, ugly, blustery, muggy, damp weather will continue to the end of month with exception of a short moderate spell that will reach meridian 90 about 26. Another cold wave will be due about 29 and then gradually warmer till Dec. 10.

The financial flurry has caused a temporary depression in the prices of the cereals but probabilities are that the depression will not continue and that the cereals will again assume good prices.

How long will the American people permit a few speculators to hold a power over them more dangerous than ever autoerated held? Good and bad crop seasons are not in it as compared with a half dozen men who so far control our medium of exchange that they can immediately stop the wheels of commerce. Whoever controls our circulating medium has the life of our republic in the palms of their hands where they can, at any moment, squeeze the life out of it.

Our business is to talk about the weather and crops and commerce, what to plant and sow, but if our politicians and statesmen cannot keep the hogs' feet out of the trough we must kick the politicians out of their jobs.

Parks & Waldrop

The finest coffee substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute" says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest coffee imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real coffee in it either. Health coffee imitation is made from pure roasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he to unknowingly drink it for coffee. Sold by J. M. Lawrence & Co. dtf

Claude Cunningham, the soloist, is a vocalist of unusual attainments. His rich, resonant voice is controlled by a method that is at once satisfying on the score of technique, and admirably embellished with artistic effects applied with the discrimination of the true artist. Consequently his style, interpretation and phrasing combine to make his work a most pleasing feature of any program on which his name may appear. Mr. Cunningham's reception yesterday afternoon was a gratifying appreciation of his fine work.—Philadelphia Press, March 3, 1906: With Ladies' Choral Club, Grand Opera House, Dec. 3. 302

MORAN VICTOR.

Neil All but Out When Fight Was Stopped.

San Francisco, Nov. 23.—Owen Moran, England's premier featherweight, was given the decision over Frankie Neil of this city near the close of the sixteenth round after a remarkably fast battle. Neil, technically speaking, was not knocked out, but it was only the merciful action of the chief of police which saved him from being sent to the land of nod. The fight was scheduled for twenty rounds.

In the fourteenth round Moran swung a right hard to the jaw and Neil fought back wildly. Moran slipped to his knees from the impact of Neil's body, when he got up, opened on Neil's face with a hard right to that member. Moran went after his maul, raining lefts and rights at will on Neil's jaw. The bell saved Neil from defeat.

When the fifteenth round commenced Neil's right eye was swollen to twice its natural size as he stood up only to receive an avalanche of left and right arm swings to the jaw. Neil "killed" desperately, and was saved just in the nick of time by the bell.

Neil came up groggy in the sixteenth round with the crowd yelling "Stop it! Stop it!" Moran floored his man with a right and left to the jaw, the Californian taking the count of nine. Realizing that their man was hopelessly beaten Neil's seconds threw up the sponge and the police stopped the fight. Moran was given the decision by Referee Roach.

DEFENSE WITNESSES.

These Were Placed on the Stand in the Bradley Trial.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Continuing his testimony at the Friday afternoon session, Mr. Shrewsbury, uncle of Mrs. Bradley, stated that on one occasion his wife, sister of defendant's mother, became so fierce that it was necessary to take her to Los Angeles. At that time she was armed with both a knife and a revolver. He had no doubt that at such a time as this his wife was insane. He said that another sister of Mrs. Bradley's mother, a Mrs. Ryan, had been sent to an asylum. In the course of the examination of the witness by Judge Powers he was several times prompted by Mrs. Bradley.

On cross-examination, Mr. Shrewsbury said that when his wife's "apella" would come on when she learned of ladies riding in the stage with him. She was jealous, but there was no occasion for her jealousy. The relation of this peculiarity of his aunt's disposition caused a smile on Mrs. Bradley's face.

United States Senator Sutherland followed Mr. Shrewsbury. He said he had known Mrs. Bradley since 1895. He told of calling upon her at the Raleigh hotel in this city immediately after the shooting of Mr. Brown, but did not give any details of the conversation. He said Mrs. Bradley's general reputation in Utah was good.

Muskogee, Nov. 23.—Transmississippi Commercial congress passed resolutions favoring postal savings banks, appropriation by the government of not less than $500,000,000 for the improvement of rivers and harbors and the establishment of a bureau for the improvement of rivers and harbors.

Senator Robert I. Owen of Oklahoma introduced a resolution asking the Federal congress to remove the restrictions from the lands of Indian allotments in Oklahoma after the state courts had provided for the protection of the full bloods. The resolution was carried unanimously.

POLITICAL QUESTIONS.

These Forged to the Front in the Peace Conference.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Political questions forged to the front in the deliberations of the Central American peace conference, and in consequence there has not been as much progress in its work as was generally supposed would be the case when the gathering assembled her ten days ago.

MARTIN W. LITTLETON.

White and, therefore, not responsible under the indictment." Mr. Littleton said also he was reliably informed the order which Mr. Jerome obtained from Justice Dowling for drawing the special panel had not yet been entered, and this means that on Dec. 2, the day set for Thaw's trial, Mr. Jerome intended to seek further delay.

SELECTING JURY.

Arthur Goebel Accompanied the Sheriff to Grant County.

Georgetown, Ky., Nov. 23.—The special venire of 150 men from which to select a jury in the Caleb Powers case arrived Friday morning, and the work of examining them touching on their qualifications for jury service consumed the entire day. A sensation ensued when it was learned that Arthur Goebel, brother of the murdered man, accompanied Sheriff Warring into Grant county.

That public opinion in central Kentucky has undergone a change in the matter of the guilt or innocence of Caleb Powers was illustrated in the examination of veniremen. Eight men were at the time necessary to complete the panel. Most of the eight examined had read Caleb Powers' address in his own defense, as delivered before a jury which tried him four years ago. The speech seems to have had great effect in the rural communities in which it was circulated. In some cases one book or pamphlet had passed from hand to hand throughout a neighborhood, according to one venireman's statement.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Smith and Young Wife Found Dead, Each With Bullet Wound.

New York, Nov. 23.—A double tragedy—wife murder and suicide—was discovered early Saturday by firemen who had been called out to subdue a blaze in the home of Nicholas Smith, a wealthy manufacturer of New Rochelle. When the firemen burst into the house after the flames had been controlled they found Smith and his young wife dead, each with a bullet wound in the body. On the floor, by the side of Smith's body was found a revolver, with which it is believed the shooting was done. That Smith killed his wife and fired the house in hope it would hide his crime and then killed himself was plainly proven in a note which was found in the room.

The Smiths were close neighbors, but were not related to each other.

EIGHT-HOUR DAY.

Federation Decides This to Be the Most Important Issue.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 23.—The American Federation of Labor declared a universal eight-hour day paramount to all questions, even to an increase in wages, "except in such trades and callings where the earnings are so meager as to make it difficult to maintain a fair standard of living;" called for a campaign of education and organization that will aid in bringing about the desired end. The Federation, determining that it would be impossible to secure a universal eight-hour day by any sudden or radical concerted step, issued a call for the accumulation by all tradesmen of a sufficient fund to make "them fully prepared for the fight, when opportunity will favor the most immediate success with the least degree of suffering and privation;" declaring the time ripe for a universal union label, the convention declared "the present system of craft labels as best calculated to serve the purposes for which the union label is designed."

The Federation called on all persons affiliated in the trades union movement to demand the union label on all products purchased, and especially called upon all men to demand the "blue label" upon their tobacco.

A resolution was passed calling for a committee of five to meet in Washington as soon as possible to work out a "union label digest."

PRYOR HONORED.

Chosen Vice President of Commercial Congress.

Muskogee, Nov. 22.—The committee on resolutions commends the action of President Roosevelt and Secretary Cortelyou in issuing government certificates for indebtedness to relieve the financial stringency and urging citizens to invest in the certificates offered by David R. Francis, ex-governor of Missouri, by a vote of 2 to 21, the chairman casting the deciding vote. Because the committee was so evenly divided the resolution was referred back to the house. The sentiment seemed to favor the action of the committee. Senator Gore urged that the house vote the resolution down. Senator Owen followed his colleague, declaring that the resolution should be carried. The house went to the side of the Indian senator, and when the vote was called the resolution was adopted by a vote of 196 to 43.

Senator Owen scored Matty Tiger, chief of the Creek nation, for allowing "the Federal government to place words in his mouth through the instrument of an interpreter."

Chief Tiger bitterly assailed Senator Owen Wednesday in a speech before the congress. A resolution was presented by the retail merchants of the transmississippi country asking that the congress declare against the parcels post.

The Transmississippi Commercial congress elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President—J. B. Case, Abilene, Kan. Vice President—Colonel Ike T. Pryor, San Antonio. Secretary—Arthur F. Francis, Cripple Creek, Colo.

Resolutions were presented to the congress as follows: "The Commercial club of Council Bluffs, Ia., presented a resolution asking for the endorsement of the congress for the improvement of the Mississippi river, the waterway from the lakes to the gulf and for other rivers in the southwest. The retail merchants' association of the transmississippi sections ask a protest against the parcels post."
